Today I am feeling...

I am following this conference from..

Some serious stuff now:

If you had one message for policy makers regarding participation, what would it be – be short and concise!

Tokenism sucks!

Hear us

listen to young people AND ACT

Give young people more responsibility

Just do it!

Don't talk about young people but with young people!

Please listen to young people, I could be interesting ;-)

young people are relevant

Include everybody!

If you had one message for policy makers regarding participation, what would it be – be short and concise!

Take the messages seriously and honestly

Talk to youngsters and take it serious

take young people seriously

Listen and act on it

Treat young people through equity

do not use them

Educate, do it!

Give away some of your Power and entitlements.

Take initiative to listen and reflect on what young people say and think.

If you had one message for policy makers regarding participation, what would it be – be short and concise!

Participation works - if you help it make it work. Attitude and structures are needed as well.

Stand up for young peoples rights

Hear the young people and then act on their opinions if you want more participation.

Use research findings!

Listen, think and react!

dialogical skills at schools

Real inclusion

cooperate with them

Thanks for your participation in our short survey! 😊
